Pendleton Normal School Proven Necessity

(Copied from Portland Oregonian.)

MONMOUTH, Ore., June 26.—The Oregon Normal school opened this week . . . students enrolled 785, largest on record for state Normal in Oregon . . . how to care for large student body a problem . . . 800 being crowded into auditorium with seating capacity of 550. Galleries filled with extra chairs in aisles. More than 150 students seated on platform. New boarding houses completed, additions to rooming houses built and tents used. One hundred girls sleep on upper floor of school. The official school report gives 150 grade pupils in Monmouth; for teacher practice.

Read what those you have elected to handle the affairs of your state and who are thoroughly informed regarding school conditions in Oregon have to say concerning measure 308 on the ballot at the coming election:

By James Withycombe, Governor of Oregon: "Oregon is unquestionably in need of more normal school work and Pendleton is the logical place for a school of this class in Eastern Oregon."

By J. A. Churchill, State Superintendent of Public Instruction: "I trust that the voters of the State will assist in raising the standard of our schools by establishing a State Normal School at Pendleton."

By P. L. Campbell, President of the University of Oregon: "At least one additional Normal School is urgently needed in Oregon."

By W. J. Kerr, President of the Oregon Agricultural College: "Since the people of Pendleton are initiating a measure for the establishment of a Normal School at that place, it will give me pleasure to support this measure."

By J. H. Ackerman, President Oregon Normal School, at Monmouth: "A careful analysis of the situation will convince any one that Oregon needs a Normal School in Eastern Oregon and Pendleton fills all the government requirements."

By the County School Superintendents of Oregon: "Resolved, that it is the sense of the County School Superintendents of the State of Oregon, in convention assembled, that the best interests of the schools of the State demand increased facilities for the training of teachers, and that we, therefore, endorse the initiative measure to establish a Normal School at Pendleton."

By Mrs. Charles H. Castner, President of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs: "I most heartily endorse the location of said Normal School at Pendleton."

Prof. Robert C. French, Former President of the Normal School Located at Weston: "An immediate establishment of such a school at some central point such as Pendleton would prove a great asset to the State of Oregon."

B. F. Mulkey, Ex-President Southern Oregon Normal School: "I shall support the location of an Eastern Oregon Normal School at Pendleton."

State Board of Regents of Oregon Normal School declares that "the necessity for additional Normal school facilities in Oregon is apparent."

Portland Chamber of Commerce endorses measure 308 and says Pendleton most logical location for Normal school in Eastern Oregon.

Obituary.

Christopher C. Richardson of Medford.

Jesse Richardson was born in Cumberland county, Kentucky, on August 12, 1834, having reached the age of 82 years and two months.

When quite young he went with his parents to Macon City, Missouri, where he was raised and educated.

It was during this early period of his life that he united with the Christian church. Mr. Richardson was also married in that locality to Miss Martha Plymire, in Caldwell, Missouri, to which union there were three sons born.

In 1865 Mr. Richardson and family came across the plains to Butte county, California, but in 1866 moved to Jackson county, Oregon, where he has continuously resided since.

On arriving here he first rented ground on the present site of Medford and followed agricultural pursuits there for two years, then purchased 320 acres of land three miles east of Medford and later removed to another place in the same vicinity, where he resided until 1896, when he purchased a farm at the head of Sams valley, later retiring to Medford, where he resided at the time of his death, being at 145 South street.

Politics did not appeal very strongly to Mr. Richardson, he being content to exercise his franchise as a simple American citizen and as a supporter of the democratic party.

Although not an officeholder, he has upon several occasions filled various minor offices in his locality, always proving worthy of the trust reposed in him by his fellow citizens.

The wife of his young manhood died in 1868 and in 1876 Mr. Richardson was again married, his second wife being Miss Cordelia Bell of Jackson county, Oregon, to which union there were eight children born, four sons and four daughters.

Mr. Richardson's children, named in the order of their birth, are as follows, three having died: Henry H. Richardson of Los Angeles, Cal.; Samuel J. Richardson, who died in April, 1907; William G. Richardson, died in February, 1896; Elizabeth Richardson, now Mrs. W. L. Cassaday of Medford; Clara Richardson, now Mrs. G. A. Gardner of Jacksonville, Ore.; Gertrude Richardson, later Mrs. A. J. Manning, died in 1907; Jesse Sanford Richardson of Medford; Josephine Richardson of Medford; Milas M. Richardson of North Bend, Ore.; Walter W. Richardson of Los Angeles, Cal., and
